

JING YE | ARCHITECTURAL DESIGNER

Jing Ye is an Architectural Designer at GLAVOVIC STUDIO. She was born in Yunnan, China and holds a Bachelor of Architecture degree from Chang'an University in Shaanxi, China and Master of Architecture from the Cranbrook Academy of Art. She has served as an independent interior designer for two small-scale hotels in Dali, China and brings over 6 years of digital design experience to GLAVOVIC STUDIO. She feels a kinship with the studio's design philosophy, notably the use of materials and attention to detail. As an Architectural Designer, she applies her skills to realize the Design Director's concepts. Curiosity is Jing's core instinct. She believes that architecture as a discipline provides the opportunity to be constantly engaged with art, history, philosophy, technology, and society.
